

Strong Recommendation for Niv Barcechet - Exceptional Front-End Programmer

I am writing to highly recommend Niv as an exceptional front-end programmer. During his tenure at Zipy, Niv's expertise in React, Next.js, and Typescript has consistently impressed us.

Niv's ability to solve complex code errors and communicate effectively with Russian programmers via Zoom left a lasting impression on our team. He consistently delivers high-quality work within tight deadlines and demonstrates professionalism and adaptability.

His technical prowess, coupled with strong problem-solving skills and collaborative nature, make him an invaluable asset to any team. Niv's positive attitude and dedication to excellence make him an absolute pleasure to work with.

In conclusion, Niv Barcechet surpasses expectations with his proficiency in front-end development. I offer my strongest endorsement and believe he will thrive in any organization.

Sincerely,

Dima
CEO, Zipy Company
